Why H. S. Stout Succeeds.

Here are a few reasons why H. S. Stout has succeeded in building up the largest tailoring business in Paris:
FIRST—He recognized the fact that five years ago that the only day of big profits and small sales was past.
SECOND—He cuts the price of tailor-made garments at least 40 PER CENT.
THIRD—He kept up the quality of his materials, his styles and his workmanship.
FOURTH—He always does as he advertised.

AS A RESULT.

As a result of this system he has built up a large trade that appreciates the fact that they save twenty dollars on a single suit or overcoat. "Many customers at a small profit rather than a few customers at a big profit," says H. S. Stout.
If you want credit, your high-price tailor gladly extends it, for he makes you pay dearly for it in the end.
Why not turn over a new leaf—wear the best, save money, by giving H. S. Stout a trial?
He makes the Finest Imported Suits for $30.00 AND $35.00.

YELLOW FEVER.

Two Cases Are Reported at Oxford, Miss., by Dr. Gant.

Each Northbound Train From Jackson, Miss., Carries a Load of Refugees—The Infection in Lafayette County, Miss., About Run Its Course.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 19.—Advice from the south Sunday night indicated no material change in the yellow fever situation since Saturday night's report. Following is a resume of the reports received: Dr. Gant arrived at Oxford, Miss., Sunday, and after looking into the two cases of fever in the Jumper family said they were undoubtedly yellow fever. He also located several suspicious cases in the family of L. N. Wood. Oxford physicians do not agree with the board of health expert, they claiming that the cases are a malignant type of malarial fever. Dr. Price, of Raymond, Miss., reports that he has a patient who is suspiciously ill. An expert will be sent there Monday to diagnose the case. The investigation of the suspicious cases in Jackson continues and all suspects so far have been discharged. The patient, Manter, was resting easily Sunday night, but shows symptoms of black vomit. Each northbound train from the city carries a coach load of refugees. Dr. Murray declares that there is no fever at Pontotoc. Inspector Gant has investigated Water Valley and wires that there is no fever in the place. The infection in Lafayette county has about run its course and most of the patients are convalescent. One new case is reported from Taylors and three from Orwood Sunday. The general situation throughout Mississippi seems reassuring.

The situation at New Orleans is unchanged.

REV. DR. JOHN HALL DEAD.

The Eminent Divine, of New York, Dies at the Home of His Sister in Bangor, County Down, Ireland.

BELFAST, Ireland, Sept. 19.—Rev. Dr. John Hall, of New York, died Saturday morning at Bangor, County Down, Ireland. Dr. Hall was on his annual visit to Europe. He died at his sister's residence. His health has been broken down for more than a year. He had hoped to return to New York shortly, and had already engaged passage on a steamer for himself and his wife.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Dr. John Hall, who died Saturday in Ireland, was born in County Armagh, Ireland, on July 31, 1829. He was of Scotch descent. When 13 years of age he entered Belfast college, and was repeatedly Hebrew prize man. In 1849 he was licensed to preach and at once engaged in labor as a missionary in the west of Ireland. He was installed pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Armagh in 1852 and in 1858 was called to the Church of Mary's abbey (now Rutland square) in Dublin. He received from Queen Victoria the honorary appointment of commissioner of education for Ireland. In 1867 Dr. Hall was a delegate from the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Ireland to the Presbyterian church in the United States, and after his return to Ireland he received a call to the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church in New York. He accepted it and entered upon his labors in November, 1867.

A new church edifice was erected for Dr. Hall in 1875 at a cost of about $1,000,000, on the corner of Fifth avenue and Fifty-fifth street. He was selected chancellor of the University of the City of New York in 1882. His salary was understood to be $20,000. In personal appearance Dr. Hall was a remarkable man. He was a man of commanding figure, with massive head, strong face, florid complexion and rather stern expression, clean shaven and with the slight stoop of a student.

MORE TROUBLE IN FORMOSA.

Another Formidable Rebellion Against Japanese Rulers Breaks Out—Many Killed and Wounded.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 19.—Mail advices from Japan state that another formidable rebellion against Japanese rulers has broken out in Formosa, this time in the southern part of the island. Two battles have been fought, one near Taichu, the other near Taihoku. The tribes were defeated by the Japanese troops and the police.

Many were killed and wounded on each side, but details are not obtainable. The rebellion is the outcome of an attempt by the Japanese administration to extend its jurisdiction over the semi-savage tribes living in the interior.

According to official reports a summary of rebellious outbreaks in Formosa during the last year shows that 42,000 persons were concerned in 1,700 attacks in different parts of the island. Five hundred persons were killed and wounded by these semi-savages, 1,500 captured and over 200 houses burned. Their booty was valued at 257,000 yen. On the other hand, 946 robbers were killed and 1,450 taken prisoners.

FUNERAL MASS.

Imposing Ceremonies Commemorative of the Murdered Empress.

The President and Members of His Cabinet, the Ambassadors and Ministers of Foreign Countries and Members of the Army and Navy Attended.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—An imposing funeral mass commemorative of the murdered Empress Elizabeth of Austria, was celebrated at St. Matthews Catholic church Saturday, Cardinal Gibbons being the celebrant. The ceremony was official in character, under the auspices of the Austrian minister and among those in attendance were President McKinley and the members of his cabinet, the ambassadors and ministers of foreign governments in their brilliant diplomatic uniforms, representatives of the United States army, navy and supreme court, and a large gathering from private life. The Austrian minister, Mr. Von Hengelmüller, was attended by all the members of his staff.

CARDINAL GIBBONS.

the military attache, Baron Riedl, in the uniform of the Austrian imperial guard, and Capt. Rodler, naval attache, in the uniform of the Austrian navy, acting as ushers. Minister Von Hengelmüller wore the striking costume of the Hungarian "Magna," denoting high diplomatic rank. It was of sombre black, satin coat, knee breeches and high boots and a heavy black velvet coat hung from the left shoulder. His sword, scabbard and hilt was hid with windings of erape. As the carriages of the president and cabinet reached the church, Mr. Von Hengelmüller left his pew and met the president at the church door, escorting him to a pew at the front at the right of the chancel. With the president were Secretaries Gage and Wilson, Postmaster General Emory Smith and Acting Secretary Ade. Back of them, as representatives of the army, sat two of the officers of Gen. Miles' staff, Col. Maus and Lieut. Col. Miehler, in fatigue uniform, while the judiciary was represented by Justice Harlan, of the United States supreme court. Many other officers of the state, war and navy departments, also were present. The diplomatic corps occupied pews opposite those of the United States government officials. With the Austrian minister sat Ambassador Cambon, wearing the heavily gold-embroidered uniform of an officer of highest diplomatic rank, with a wide silk sash from shoulder to hip. He left his pew after the president and cabinet were seated, and crossing the aisle paid his respects to the president and cabinet officers. The German charge d'affaires, Baron Speck von Sternberg, with the German military, naval and civil attaches, in full uniform, the minister of Switzerland, where the assassination of the empress occurred, and the representatives of Russia, Norway and Sweden, Belgium, Denmark, Portugal, China, Japan, Turkey, Colombia, Venezuela, Costa Rica, Brazil, Peru, Chili, most of them in court and diplomatic attire, were present. In the absence of the British ambassador, Sir Julian Pauncefote sent a large floral cross of white roses and carnations, which was in the middle of the chancel facing the congregation. The embassy was represented by Capt. Paget and Mr. Young.

The church interior was simply arranged for the occasion. Back of the chancel hung long erape draperies, covering the windows and darkening the altar. The pulpit was draped with heavy bands of erape. Cardinal Gibbons was assisted in the mass by a large number of priests and acolytes, the usual rich vestments being put aside for those of black and white.

PLANS GREATLY CHANGED.

Instead of Evacuating Manila Insurgents Are Concentrating in Force at Santana—Aguinaldo Holds the Place.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The following dispatches were received Friday from Gen. Otis:

MANILA, Sept. 16.—Adjutant General Army, Washington: In my opinion, based upon present indications, no further force required. Insurgent leaders in politics and army in excitable frame of mind, but better portion amenable to reason and desire to make approved reputation before civilized world.

OTIS, Commanding.

MANILA, Sept. 16.—Adjutant General, Washington, D. C.:—Telegraphed situated briefly yesterday. Insurgents have acceded demand and evacuated entire city of Manila, except small force in one outlying district. No difficulty anticipated and no concessions made to them. They express strong desire to maintain friendly intercourse with United States government in all particulars. They organized congress Thursday at Malolos, about twenty miles north of city, to frame plan of government. Manila very quiet. Military government being perfected gradually and large force policing and cleansing city. Health of command satisfactory. Trade and commerce active. Treasury receipts since August 14, $540,000 Mexican current money. Philippines' monthly expenses will aggregate at least $350,000; nearly one-half required to subsidize 12,000 Spanish prisoners. Believe that receipts will largely exceed expenditures. Tariffs and duties imposed, as directed by president on July 12, but received as currency of country as on gold basis would almost double former Spanish duties. United States laws applied for admission of Chinese and opium; sales of licenses for lotteries and other pastimes, opposed by public morals, discontinued.

OTIS, Commanding.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: The insurgents changed their plans Thursday night, and instead of evacuating all the suburbs of the city, as Gen. Otis ordered, they moved from Ermita and Malate to Santana, where they appear to be concentrating in strong force.

It is reported, although it has not been confirmed, that Aguinaldo has ordered that this place be held at any cost. It is more likely a move on the part of Pio Pilar to embarrass the dictator. The former rebel chief, Isabello Artacho, who was condemned to death by Aguinaldo for treachery in May and reprieved and escaped, is leading 15,000 men against Aguinaldo. Artacho is backed by priests.

A Jesuit priest was shot for persuading rebels to desert Aguinaldo's cause.

At the meeting of rebel leaders in Malolos the majority will vote for autonomy under American protection. Coasting steamers are trading with the provinces under Spanish rule. Aguinaldo demands 50 per cent of freight receipts of steamers trading with the rebel provinces.

All Spaniards in the northern provinces are now prisoners. The rebels seized stocks and cash of the tobacco estates belonging to the Campana Tabacalera, in Cagayan province, and also those of Coprax in Samarines province. The losses are enormous. The rebel steamer Bulacan has been sunk by a Spanish gunboat at Marbata.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The Manila dispatches stating that Aguinaldo has assembled all of the Filipinos at Malolos gives no apprehension to war department officials, as they feel satisfied that the opportunity for a real crisis was passed when Aguinaldo removed his forces from the suburbs of Manila. So long as the American forces in and about Manila are left untrammelled there is no disposition to restrict Aguinaldo in holding meetings of his followers outside of the immediate field of American operations.

Nine Were Drowned.

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—The steamship Gloucester, of the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Co., which arrived here Friday forenoon from Baltimore, reports that at 1:30 o'clock Friday morning she collided with the Gloucester schooner Alice Jordan off Martha's Vineyard, and that nine of the Jordan's crew were drowned. Seven of the crew were saved and brought here on the Gloucester.

Established a New Record.

OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 17.—A special train of an engine and four cars on the Chicago & Northwestern railway established a new record between Chicago and Omaha Friday, making the run of 493 miles in 8 hours and 29 minutes. It left Chicago at 9 o'clock Friday morning and pulled into the Omaha Union depot at 5:29 p. m.

Southern Road Branching Out.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 17.—It is rumored that the Southern railroad has about consummated plans to secure the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis railroad and the Kentucky and Indiana bridge in this city. The Southern will thus secure entrance to Evansville and St. Louis.

The Cunard line steamer Aurania, from New York on September 6 for Liverpool, has been reported off the south coast of Ireland, disabled and in tow.

ROOSTER SOLD AT $1,000.

A Texas Bird That Was Winner of Over $5,000 and Champion in Twenty-Seven Battles.

The celebrated gamecock, Commodore Wainwright, after his great victories at Hollettsville, Laredo, San Antonio and Caldwell, was sold in the cock pit on Gen. Perdue's ranch in Burleson county, Tex., for $1,000. Don San Diego Montemayo, a sportsman and chicken fancier of Monterey, Mexico, became the purchaser. The money was paid in gold, and while it was being counted out the victorious young rooster crowed lustily. His spurs were bloody from his recent victory and his feathers a little ruffled, but otherwise he looked as fresh as the proverbial spring chicken.

During the successful campaign which the game young Commodore has just completed he was entered in 27 mains and was the victor in every one. It is said that this bird has won more than $5,000 for his owner during his short career. He has fought his last battle, for, according to the terms of the bill of sale which the vendor gave to Senor Montemayo, the great bird is to be used as a breeder, the purchaser obligating himself never to fight the celebrated gamecock again.

This is believed to be the highest price ever paid for a rooster in Texas, but the price would not be regarded as startling in old Mexico, where victorious roosters have often been exchanged for herds of cattle, ranches and silver mines.

Atahualpa was the original pet name of this wonderful bird, and when he crowed he seemed to say it as plainly as ever a feathered youngster pronounced his own name. His trainer made him stand still in a gladiator attitude while the camera was turned on him, and when the snap shot was finished he seemed to understand that he was expected to crow, and then his admirers, all of whom were jingling Wainwright gold in their pockets, gave him a rousing farewell cheer.

Queer Streets of Manila.

The streets of Manila are so modern as to be quite out of keeping with the general appearance of the town. They are perfectly straight, macadamized, and provided with ample granite walks. Of these the Escomta and the Rosario are the best. In both these are excellent shops, kept principally by Chinese merchants, most of whom come from Amoy. Tin-roofed houses line each side of both thoroughfares.

Fires in London.

Of the 3,500 fires to which the London fire brigade was called last year, no fewer than 335 were caused by petroleum lamps.

THOSE ISLANDS.

Archbishop Dozal Hopes the Philippines Will Not Be Returned to Spain.

Incessant Strife and a Lapse Into Barbarism and Natural Indolence of Tropical Races Would Take Place—Prefer to Be American Subjects.

MANILA, Sept. 19.—In an interview here with Archbishop Dozal of the Philippine islands, said: "I earnestly hope the islands will not remain Spanish, because the rebels are now so strong that such a course would inevitably cause appalling bloodshed. The re-conquest of the natives is impossible until after years of the most cruel warfare."

He also expressed the hope that the islands would not become absolutely independent, because it was certain that dissensions would occur which would result in incessant strife and a lapse into barbarism and the natural indolence of the tropical race. The only hope, the archbishop declared, was that a strong western power would intervene now. Delay was dangerous, because the people are intoxicated, vain and restless.

He said it was undeniable that the religious orders must go, because the whole people had determined to abolish them, now that they were able to render their retention impossible. He lay the chief blame upon the Dominicans, Augustines and Franciscan recalcitants, the richest orders, and next upon the Benedictines and Capuchins, which are of less importance. The Jesuits, Archbishop Dozal says, are comparatively blameless. He added that the rival orders quarrel among themselves, intrigue, act unworthily and slander their opponents, thus increasing their general disfavor.

The provincials, who are approximately equivalent to archdeacons, are mainly responsible. They are utterly beyond the control of the archbishop, who denies possessing much power.

The total number of Spanish priests in the Philippines before the war was about one thousand, but lately every departing steamer has taken fifty or a hundred of them away, now barely 500 remain. A native priest privately stated to the correspondent that the reason the archbishop hopes for the expulsion of the friars is that they have grown too powerful for him and that he wishes to strengthen himself. Several responsible Spaniards assured the correspondent that they would refuse to remain here if Spain was reinstated in the control of the islands. Many of the Spanish soldiers refuse to serve again and Spanish officers are utterly disgusted with the rottenness of Spain's government and prefer to become American subjects.

The annexationists have a majority of 71 in the national assembly but the discussion of the subject has not been finished.

MISS WINNIE DAVIS DEAD.

The Daughter of the Confederacy Succumbs to Malarial Troubles—Sick for Several Weeks.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Sept. 19.—Miss Winnie Davis, daughter of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, died at noon Sunday at the Rockingham hotel, to which place she came as a guest in the early part of the Pier's social season. She had been ill for several weeks, and a fortnight ago her condition became very serious so that consultations of physicians were deemed necessary, but frequent rallies gave renewed hope that she would ultimately recover.

Miss Winnie Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy," was born in the confederate executive mansion, at Richmond, Va., in 1863. She was educated principally at home, owing to the trouble surrounding her father and the publicity which attended all movements of the Davis family.

VESUVIUS IS IN ERUPTION.

Great Streams of Lava Are Spreading in Every Direction in a Most Threatening Manner.

NAPLES, Sept. 19.—A state of gloomy apprehension prevails among the population regarding the eruption of Vesuvius, which is hourly becoming more active and menacing. Streams of lava are spreading in every direction. The most threatening one flows through the Vedrino valley, which is almost filled. The observatory, which originally stood at a height of 610 meters, is now only 27 meters above the sea level, owing to the sinking of the ground. Seven new craters have formed around the central one and this has not tended to diminish the fears formerly felt, which were based upon the eruption of stones and scoria, similar to that which occurred in 1872.

Why He Was Arrested.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 19.—J. W. Crossley, a soldier of the 17th regiment, was arrested for safe-keeping. Crossley fell into the hands of a number of women, who wanted the buttons off his blouse as souvenirs of the Santiago fight. He gave them freely, and the women tore off pieces of his blouse. The lieutenant of his company, perceiving the predicament he was in, directed a police officer to take him in and relieve him from the attack to which he was subjected. Later he was released.

GEN. HASKELL DROPS DEAD.

The Deceased Commanded the 17th Infantry at the Battle of El Caney, Cuba, and Was Wounded.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 17.—Brig. Gen. Joseph T. Haskell died suddenly at his home at the Columbus post about 4:30 Friday afternoon. He was stricken with apoplexy, the excitement through which he had passed during the day being the immediate cause of the attack.

Gen. Haskell commanded the 17th infantry at the battle of El Caney and was twice wounded in the left shoulder and knee. He came home about a month ago and was rapidly recovering, the wound in his shoulder, however, had paralyzed his left arm, which he carried in a sling. Friday morning the 17th regiment returned home and Gen. Haskell went to the depot in a carriage to welcome his gallant men. He rode at the head of the regiment through the city to the post and the cheers of the immense crowds of people that lined the streets were directed almost as much to him individually as to the regiment. At the reviewing stand the crowd surrounded the carriage and flowers were fairly showered into the vehicle from every side. Although not as strong as formerly, Gen. Haskell appeared rugged and his sudden death was a terrible shock to his family and friends. At 4:30 Friday afternoon Capt. Clay called at Gen. Haskell's residence to pay his respects. The general was resting at the time, but came down stairs. They had been engaged in conversation about five minutes when Gen. Haskell suddenly started to his feet, clasping his hands to his head, then fell to the floor. The only exclamation he made was "Oh, oh!" Capt. Clay sprang to his assistance and was surprised to find that his pulse had ceased to beat. Post Surgeon Pilcher was summoned and stated that death was caused by apoplexy. Mrs. Haskell was prostrated by her husband's death. Besides the widow two sons survive.

Gen. Haskell was born at Cincinnati, O., November 19, 1838. He was appointed a captain of commissary subsistence in 1863 and served throughout the war. For gallantry he was breveted major, lieutenant colonel and colonel. He became captain in the 23d infantry July 28, 1864, and was promoted to major of the 21st on June 24, 1872. He became lieutenant colonel of the 17th United States infantry on August 27, 1896.

From January, 1899, until January, 1872, he was in command of the San Juan Islands, which at that time were a bone of contention between the United States and Great Britain. This matter was settled by arbitration, Emperor William of Germany, deciding in favor of the United States.

In 1888 he was appointed a member of the tactics board and helped compile the military tactics which are now used by the army. From 1891 to 1893 he was a member and president of the board of examiners for officers for promotion and was president of the board that examined non-commissioned officers seeking commissions.

When Col. Poland was appointed brigadier general at the outbreak of the war Gen. Haskell as lieutenant colonel assumed command of the 17th United States infantry and led that regiment through the succession of barbed wire fences that surrounded the block houses at El Caney until he was shot. First a bullet struck his right shoe, bruising his heel. He laughingly remarked to a lieutenant that he had been shot in the heel. The remark was no sooner uttered than he was shot in the left shoulder. In another instant he received a bullet in his knee. Gen. Haskell lay the remainder of the day on the firing line, such attention having been given to his wounds as the improvised hospital service provided. The survivors of the 17th praised the bravery of their commander in the highest terms. More than one declared that if he had not been wounded the regiment would have followed him to the last man. He kept ahead of the regiment and maintained his sole possession under a withering fire. The Spaniards had the range perfectly in each line of barbed wire fence and the lines of the regiment were thinned at each obstruction. It was not until Gen. Haskell fell wounded, that their advance was temporarily checked. For his bravery at El Caney Col. Haskell was recently promoted to brigadier general.

NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON.

The Fleet Reorganized and Reduced From a Force of One Hundred Vessels to Thirty-Two.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Secretary Long Friday afternoon issued an important order reorganizing the North Atlantic squadron. The fleet is reduced from a force of about 100 vessels to 32, the remainder being detached ready for disposition in the future. The four vessels of the Morgan line, the Prairie, Yosemite, Yankee and Dixie, with the auxiliary cruisers Badger and Panther, are ordered to be laid up in reserve at League Island. The fleet as reorganized will consist of the Indiana, Massachusetts, Texas, New York, Brooklyn, Amphitrite, Puritan, Miantonomoh, Terror, Cincinnati, Montgomery, Newark, San Francisco, Detroit, Marblehead, Mayflower, New Orleans, Bancroft, Marietta, Topeka, Castine, Nashville, Wilmington, Machias, Princeton, Fern, Wasp, Hist. Resolute, Potomac, Scorpion and Albatross.

AT HIS REQUEST.

Capt. Robley D. Evans Relieved of the Command of the Battle Ship Iowa.

The Next Commander of the Iowa Will Be Capt. Silas Terry—The Iowa Will Accompany the Oregon and Other Vessels to Honolulu.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Capt. Robley D. Evans called at the navy department Thursday and had a long talk with Secretary Long, the immediate result of which was the issue of an order relieving him of the command of the battle ship Iowa, which is now being repaired at the New York navy yard. This was done at Capt. Evans' personal request. He has served more than the period of time required by regulations and practice for a captain to command, and his next sea service may be in flag rank. He has been granted a leave of absence, and in the meantime the nature of his next duty will be determined. It will certainly be ashore, and he may be assigned to membership on one of the naval boards. The next commander of the Iowa will be Capt. Silas Terry, now in command of the receiving ship Franklin at the Norfolk navy yard. He will take the ship around South America and over to Honolulu in company of the Oregon and some colliers. It is said at the navy department Thursday that the sailing orders to the battle ships have not yet been issued, and when they are, they will take the ships only as far as Honolulu. It is not denied that they will ultimately proceed to join Dewey's fleet at Manila if it should be deemed expedient to reinforce him. But as the trip around South America will occupy nearly four months, and many changes in the situation as to the Philippines may be expected to occur before the expiration of that period of time, it can not be certainly foretold whether or not the Oregon and Iowa will ever reach Manila.

Return of First Ohio Regiment to Cincinnati.

The sending of reinforcements to Dewey being regarded as at least a technical violation of the existing truce.

Secretary Long Thursday afternoon decided to assign Capt. Evans to duty as a member of the naval inspection board and he will assume his new duties after a brief vacation.

OVERWORK AND EXPOSURE.

Major Gen. Miles Has Malaria, and Is Confined to His Bed, But His Friends Are Not Alarmed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Gen. Miles is confined to his bed with a touch of fever resulting in part from the work and exposure of his recent campaigns. The general has been ailing for some days, and, although he came to army headquarters for two hours Wednesday, there was already some evidence of fever. Thursday the fever symptoms were rather more marked and the physician who was called insisted upon the general's remaining in bed. The attack causes no apprehension to the general or his friends.

May Prove a Double Murder.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.—John Stein, drunk, resisted arrest Thursday night and Stein received four bullets in his abdomen. Policeman Sill was shot in the abdomen, neck and shoulder. Both will probably die.

Fatal Toothpulling.

NEW ARBANY, Ind., Sept. 16.—Mrs. Jacob Miller, aged 53, died Thursday of paralysis. She had had a tooth extracted, and, while laboring under excitement, sustained a paralytic stroke.

THE FIRST OHIO AT HOME.

Thousands of People Await the Tardy Arrival of Trains Bearing the Regiment—Mustered out October 15.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 16.—The 1st Ohio regiment arrived in five trains at the Pennsylvania depot Thursday afternoon and evening.

As section after section arrived the people up town, who heard the signal bells and whistles, rushed down and joined the throngs about the cars. Then there were more greetings and tugging at extended hands.

When the last section arrived the troops were permitted to leave the cars and form in line. Then the march to the armory through the principal streets commenced. The boys received hearty cheers along the line of march to the armory, where a substantial luncheon was given the soldiers.

Lieut. Lee, the acting quartermaster at Ft. Thomas, has been designated by the war department as the officer to muster out the 1st regiment, and was at the armory Thursday night to meet the officers and discuss the matter with them.

The mustering out of a regiment is

VICE ADMIRAL FOR DEWEY.

Secretary of the Navy Long Expected to Recommend the Creation of That Grade for the Manila Hero.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says: Secretary Long is expected to make special reference in his annual report to the operations of the Asiatic squadron and particularly to the conduct of Rr. Adm. Dewey. Department officials generally believe the best is none too good for that officer, and no surprise would be expressed if the secretary were to recommend that the grade of vice admiral be created in order that it might be filled by the appointment of Rr. Adm. Dewey. As showing the faith put in Rr. Adm. Dewey, the department does not exact from him a statement concerning his doings, but is satisfied to let him have a free hand and take such necessary action as he may deem proper. He is kept well advised of the international situation, particularly with reference to the Pacific, but the department has every confidence in his good judgment.

DEMANDS COMPLIED WITH.

Gen. Otis Informs the War Department That the Insurgents Are Withdrawing From the Suburbs of Manila.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Gen. Otis Thursday cabled the war department as follows:

"MANILA, Sept. 15, 1898.—Adjutant General, Washington, D. C.: Affairs much more satisfactory. Demands for withdrawal of insurgent forces complied with, and all withdrawn or withdrawing Thursday, except small forces in outlying districts, which are not obeying insurgent leader. Aguinaldo requests a few days in which to withdraw them by detachments and punish their commanding officers. Over two thousand already withdrawn. No concessions granted insurgents, but strict compliance with demands of 8th inst. required. General good feeling prevailing. Manila quiet and business progressing favorably. No difficulty anticipated. Have been compelled to confine Spanish prisoners temporarily within limits of walled city.

"Otis, Commanding."

INVESTIGATION TO BE MADE.

The President Has Secured Six Men to Investigate the War Department's Management of the War.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Six commissioners have been secured by the president to investigate the war department's management of the war. They are: Gen. John M. Schofield, Prof. D. C. Gilman, Gen. Grenville M. Dodge, Col. James A. Sexton, Charles W. Denby and Evan P. Howell.

The president concluded to exercise his prerogative in the case of Gen. Schofield, and despite that officers request that he be excused, has ordered him to serve as chairman of the commission.

The president is determined that the investigation shall be made.

PUT UP AT PUBLIC AUCTION.

All the Horses That Belonged to Roosevelt's Rough Riders to Be Sold in New York Next Monday.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—New Yorkers who wish to obtain a souvenir of the famous rough riders will have an opportunity to do so. The war department Thursday ordered that all the horses which had been at Montauk, about a thousand in number, belonging to the 1st regiment of United States volunteer cavalry, by which is meant Col. Roosevelt's rough riders, be sold at public auction. The horses are already on the way to New York by water, and the auction will take place in that city at the earliest possible moment. Many of the animals are highly trained in the style peculiar to the western cow puncher, and it is likely that some of them will be bid in by their former riders.

Officers Elected.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Sept. 16.—The Union Veteran league Thursday elected the following officers: National commander, W. S. Norcross, Lewiston, Me.; senior vice national commander, W. W. Brown, Washington; junior vice national commander, J. Ben Renner, Cincinnati; quartermaster general, Thomas J. Hubbard, Baltimore; chaplain-in-chief, Henry N. Coudon, Washington; surgeon general, John T. Booth, Washington.

Winnie Davis Much Better.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., Sept. 16.—Miss Winnie Davis was much improved Thursday and the prospects are good for her rapid recovery to health. The hotel in which she is a guest closed for the season Thursday, but Miss Davis and her mother and the attendants will remain until it is safe to remove the patient.

London, Sept. 16.—Next to the highest balloon ascension on record was made here Thursday afternoon from the Crystal palace, Sydenham, by Stanley Spencer, the well known aeronaut, and Dr. Berson. The balloon, which was inflated with pure hydrogen and has a capacity of 55,500 cubic feet, attained an altitude of 27,500.

At a height of 25,000 feet the air was so rarified that the occupants of the car were compelled to breathe the compressed oxygen by tubes. The temperature was 31 degrees below freezing point. The atmosphere was clear and the coast distinctly visible.

Letter From Porto Rico.

THE following extracts are taken from a letter written to THE BOURBON NEWS by Dr. Ben Frank, of this city, who is Steward of the Hospital Corps, of the First Kentucky, in Porto Rico:

Our regiment arrived here August 15th on the transport Alamo, after being a week making the trip from Newport News. As we caught the last glimpse of that dear old country the boys were singing "Old Kentucky Home," and as we pulled into the harbor at Porto Rico there was great cheering on all sides. A storm occurred during the first night we were at sea, and it was very trying on the sick men we had on board, some of them being crowded into the steerage. The poor fellows fared badly, but I did my best in taking care of them. It was the roughest night I ever spent though I was not seasick, much to my surprise. Two cases of measles developed as we were landing, and they had to be isolated to keep the whole boat from being infected. * * * Our transport had to anchor two miles from the shore, there being no landing place. We were on the boat several days before we landed, but squads of men were allowed to go ashore every day. The first night after we landed we camped in a swamp, and between the land crabs and the mosquitoes, a man could hardly exist. Many a man went to bed hungry that night but all were in good spirits. Our camp is now situated in the hills about four miles from the city of Ponce, and we are surrounded by sharpshooters and guerrillas. Guerrilla warfare is still being carried on, and no doubt will be kept up for some time. In a few days we will march to Coama, which is an inland city about twenty-five miles from Ponce. We expect to finally proceed to San Juan. It is the general opinion that we will eat Christmas dinner in dear old Kentucky, but that depends.

As a class the natives of Porto Rico are the most trifling people that I ever saw. They seem to have no ambition to do anything except to lay around the streets all day. Of course some of them are very energetic. The scenery about Ponce is something grand, and the buildings in the city are very attractive. I went to an old prison a few days ago where I saw over three hundred Spanish prisoners. While there I secured some old relics which I hope to bring back home. I have taken some fine pictures with my kodak and they will make an interesting collection.

While I was in Ponce about a week ago I went into a Spanish cafe to get supper, and while I was there the natives stoned the place, and there was quite a riot. Several large stones missed me just about an inch. There were six shots fired during the excitement but no one was wounded.

Unless things change we will see no active battle, though we will no doubt see some skirmishing. If I can keep in good health I fear nothing else. The hardships have been many but the boys are bearing them like true Kentucky lads. Nearly every morning they get up soaking wet with the rain which fell during the night, but the sun soon dries them out. It is fearfully hot here and I am tanned the color of the natives.

Send me the BOURBON NEWS as long as we are here. Regards to all of my friends who inquire about me.

Very Truly,
BEN FRANK.

Only Six Responded

A County Superintendent in a neighboring county asked every teacher at the Institute who took their local or county paper to hold up their hands, and out of about a hundred, only six responded, says the Midway Clipper. The Superintendent expressed great surprise and said: "You don't spend a dollar a year with those papers, yet you expect them to print free of charge, notices of all Institutes, insert long programs, and expect them to advertise you, thus assisting you to climb the ladder to better places and better salaries without a cent's patronage in return."

THERE will be an election of trustees at each of the county school-houses on the afternoon of the first Saturday of October. The proper papers will be sent out to the respective chairmen the last of this week.

Fine Figure

Many women lose their girlish forms after they become mothers. This is due to neglect. The figure can be preserved beyond question if the expectant mother will constantly use during the whole period of pregnancy. The earlier its use is begun, the more perfectly will the shape be preserved. Mother's Friend not only softens and relaxes the muscles during the great strain before birth, but helps the skin to contract naturally afterward. It keeps unsightly wrinkles away, and the muscles underneath retain their pliability.

Mother's Friend

Mother's Friend is that famous external liniment which banishes morning sickness and nervousness during pregnancy; shortens labor and makes it nearly painless; builds up the patient's constitutional strength, so that she emerges from the ordeal without danger. The little one, too, shows the effects of Mother's Friend by its robustness and vigor.

Sold at drug stores for $1 a bottle.

THE BOSTON LYRIC OPERA CO.

Fresh from brilliant engagements in Cincinnati and Lexington the Boston Lyric Opera Company began a week's engagement last night at the Paris Grand, singing that delightful opera "Amorita" before a large and handsome audience. The opera was given in splendid style, W. H. Clarke, the basso, George Olmi, baritone, Robert Lett, Henry Hallam, Miss Adelaide, leading soprano, Misses Josephine Stanton, Marie Kingsbury and Gertrude Clark being especially popular. The company has scored a decided hit in Paris.

The bill for the night will be the beautiful opera "Bohemian Girl." "The Chimes of Normandy" will be sung tomorrow night, and that romantic and picturesque piece "Fra Diavolo" will be given Thursday night. On Friday night "Olivette" will be sung for the first time in this city, and the engagement will close Saturday night with a special bill. Matinees will be given to-morrow and Saturday. The management has given a heavy guarantee to secure this splendid company and it should be liberally patronized.

The cake walk to be given in the Elk Minstrels will be one of the most amusing features ever given in an amateur performance in Paris. Like Katharine's elbow, it will be worth coming miles to see. The other features of the program will be up to a high standard of excellence. Everybody is going to see the Elk Minstrels.

Nat Goodwin, the popular actor, met with a painful accident while riding horseback at his country place near London. His horse threw him, fracturing both legs. He was to have sailed for New York, Saturday.

Advice to Consumptives

There are three great remedies that every person with weak lungs, or with consumption itself, should understand. These remedies will cure about every case in its first stages; and many of those more advanced. It is only the most advanced that are hopeless. Even these are wonderfully relieved and life itself greatly prolonged.

What are these remedies?

Fresh air, proper food and

of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphites. Be afraid of draughts but not of fresh air. Eat nutritious food and drink plenty of milk. Do not forget that Scott's Emulsion is the oldest, the most thoroughly tested and the highest endorsed of all remedies for weak throats, weak lungs and consumption in all its stages.

THERE are eggs and eggs. The egg of yesterday looks, feels, measures and weighs like the egg of last month, but there's a difference in another respect, and that difference is worth money. It's just so with laundry. The difference between good work and poor is slight to the unpracticed discernment, but it's a difference that counts every time. It's a difference that changes your laundry bill from an expense to an investment. We do good work—it will cost no more than poor work but its worth double the difference.

Scrofula to Consumption.

Any one predisposed to Scrofula can never be healthy and vigorous. This taint in the blood naturally drifts into Consumption. Being such a deep-seated blood disease, Swift's Specific is the only known cure for Scrofula, because it is the only remedy which can reach the disease.

Scrofula appeared on the head of my little grandchild when only 18 months old. Shortly after breaking out it spread rapidly all over her body. The sores on the sores would peel off on the slightest touch, and the odor that would arise made the atmosphere of the room sickening and unbearable. The disease next attacked the eyes, and we feared she would lose her sight. Eminent physicians from the surrounding country were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent, and gave it as their opinion that the case was hopeless and impossible to save the child's eyesight. It was then that we decided to try Swift's Specific. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a young lady, and has never had a sign of the disease to return.

Scrofula is an obstinate blood disease, and is beyond the reach of the average blood medicine. Swift's Specific is the only remedy equal to such deep-seated diseases; it goes down to the very foundation and forces out every taint. It is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no mercury, potash or other mineral substance whatever. Books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

LOOK UP.

My toil-worn brother, lift your eyes,
Look up and leave repining;
A golden sign is in the skies—
The star of hope is shining.

O weary ones, I bring you cheer,
The day at last is dawning;
The night is long and dark and drear,
But joy is in the morning.

My sisters, bowed with care and grief,
Look up, forget your sorrow;
For trouble there will come relief,
And hope is in the morrow.

O souls cast down in bitterness,
Arise and cease complaining;
There is an end to your distress—
Look up, for God is reigning.

I know not any creed but this:
That we should love each other;
That every land and country is,
And every man my brother.

My heart goes out to you in love,
To make your burden lighter;
To tell you hope is dawning,
A future growing brighter.

All ye who suffer and repine,
My heart in pity holds you;
And, if in mind, know by that sign,
God's greater love enfolds you.

Look up, our Father, on the sky
Has set a bow of promise;
Look up! The clouds are rolling by—
The night is passing from us.

The wrongs of old their race have run;
Men to the new are turning;
Above the yet unrisen sun
The clouds of morn are burning.

Look up, my brothers, look and pray;
Though now you wait in sadness;
The golden light of the new day
Will flood your hearts with gladness.

The tyrant's reign is on the wane,
Our martial hosts are treading;
The happy light of liberty
To other lands is spreading.

There beams above the younger day
A pathway of better;
When tyranny shall pass away,
And crumble every fetter.

Look up and be of better cheer,
The morn is rising o'er us;
The future's coming, golden year
More brightly shines before us.

"CALAMITY JANE"

Friend of Our Dime Novel Days Living in Montana.

"CALAMITY JANE," a character who figured for years in many of the dime novel stories of western adventure, is living on a ranch near Crow agency, Montana. Her name in private life is Mrs. Martha Burk, and her story is fully as interesting as any of the wild yarns that penny-a-liners have penned about her prowess.

In the little town of Princeton, Mo., there was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Cannary a group of six children, the oldest of whom was Martha. When she was 13 years old, that is, in 1865, excitement was rampant throughout the United States owing to the extensive gold discoveries in Montana. Mr. Cannary was not proof against the "fever," and with his family he started overland for Virginia City, Mont., in the famous Alder gulch diggings. Five months were required to make the journey, while at present but two days are requisite. The country traversed was but sparsely settled, and for subsistence the party was mainly dependent upon what game they could secure with their rifles. On this long and tedious trip Martha developed a love for outdoor sport, which, by the time they finally arrived in Montana, had rendered her a remarkably good shot and a fearless rider for a girl of her age.

Shortly after reaching Montana the mother died, and the father, who, in common with 95 per cent. of the argonauts, had failed to make a "strike," determined to return to Missouri. Reaching Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1867, Mr. Cannary also succumbed, and the children were left to face the world as best they could. Employment was found for Martha on a ranch at Fort Bridger, Wyo., and here she improved her time not in "book learning," for books were not to be had, but at shooting and riding, as the next best accomplishment, and her reputation in that line soon became widespread.

In 1870, learning that Gen. Custer was at Fort Russell, Wyo., she determined to proceed thither, in high hope that she might be able to induce him to allow her to accompany him on his campaign against the Apache Indians in Arizona. Up to this time she had always worn the dress of her sex, but, fearing that Gen. Custer would be reluctant to permit her to enlist were he aware of her sex, she, after much deliberation, donned the regulation cowboy attire, and was promptly accepted as a scout, being uniformed as a soldier, and although it was but a short time before her identity was discovered, her ability as a rider was recognized to such an extent that Gen. Custer, with only a slight reprimand for the deception, permitted her to remain in her assignment as a scout.

While the campaign was a thrilling one from start to finish, "M. Cannary," as her name appeared on the muster roll, fully bore her share of the hardships, and met with many adventures in the sometimes dangerous missions given her to be performed, but these she always succeeded in accomplishing in safety. Only at one time did she despair of her life, being entrapped by two Indians, but her ability as a shot served her well, and, after wounding one of the Indians, she made her escape, and, upon reporting to Gen. Custer, was warmly praised.

The outbreak was duly quelled, and upon returning to Fort Sanders, Wyo., in 1872, it was reported that the Nez Perce Indians, in the musselshell country, were on the warpath, and an expedition under Gen. Custer, Miles, Terry and Crook was ordered there. It was during this campaign that she received her cognomen "Calamity Jane." Relating the circumstances thereof, she said: "I was serving under Capt. Egar, and while near Goose Creek (the present city of Sheridan, Wyo.), after having been on a three days' skirmish, during which the company had six men killed and several wounded, we were ambushed about a mile from our destination. Capt. Egan was one of the first to be shot during the engagement, and I, happening to be in close proximity to him, noticed him reeling in his saddle. I was able to reach his side in time to prevent him from falling, and, getting him on my horse, in front of me, bore him to camp in safety. After he had recovered, one day he laughingly christened me 'Calamity Jane,' the heroine of the plains, and even to this day I have borne that title among my more intimate friends."

The Nez Perce were subdued in 1873, and the early portion of 1874 was spent in various minor engagements in Montana and Wyoming, when, in 1875, under Gen. Crook, she was ordered to the Black Hills of South Dakota, to protect the miners and settlers in that section, as the country was overrun and practically controlled by the Sioux Indians. After a nominal campaign in that section lasting until 1876, they were again ordered north to join Gen. Custer, Miles and Terry on the Big Horn river.

During this march Mrs. Burk was detailed as the bearer of important dispatches, and although the trip was one of 90 miles, the weather wet and cold, and it necessitated swimming the Platte river at Fort Fetterman, she performed her duty willingly, but at a fearful cost, as she contracted pneumonia and was confined in a hospital for three weeks, and being too ill to return to her company was granted an indefinite furlough, which in all probability saved her life, for the next year witnessed that fearful massacre in which Gen. Custer and his brave men were so wantonly butchered.

"Calamity Jane" next found service in the employ of the government carrying the United States mail between Deadwood and Custer, Mont., and although the route was considered an extremely hazardous one, her reputation as an unerring marksman was such that not once did she have an opportunity to display her skill to either the Sioux or highwaymen in behalf of Uncle Sam.

While thus engaged she was present in Deadwood at the time William Hickok (Wild Bill) was assassinated by Jack McCall, a notorious desperado, and was a member of the posse that arrested and confined him in a log cabin, she having the honor of commanding him to surrender, when cornered in a butcher shop, with a meat cleaver as her weapon.

Her love for the army service was such, however, that she again volunteered in the Seventh cavalry and helped build Fort Meade, S. D., but this sort of work was not to her liking, and in 1873 she was honorably discharged and "took up" a ranch on the Yellowstone river, near Miles City, Mont., which, however, was not a brilliant financial success.

In 1884, while visiting in El Paso, Tex., she met Clinton Burk, to whom she was subsequently married, and of this marriage a daughter was born. Her husband died in 1895, since which time she has been quietly ensconced on a ranch near the scene of her earlier and more exciting escapades. She was, however, sorely tempted to don her "fighting clothes" last fall when it was reported that the Indians were on the warpath near Rosebud, yet, she says, her intuition told her it was only a "scare," and while awaiting developments of a more definite character her insight was proven true, and she did not go.

Mrs. Burk's voice glows in praise of Gen. Custer, whom she describes as an absolute fearless, tireless and brave man, and over whose untimely and sudden end she has shed not a few tears. From her front door may be seen the tomb of Gen. Custer, and to this fact may be ascribed the principal reason of her residence there.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

ROMANCE OF A CATASTROPHE.

Tragic Circumstances Under Which a New Jersey Girl First Meets Her Lover.

People who meet and marry in the ordinary, matter-of-fact way of the present-day world are inclined to sneer and put little faith in marriages which result from a matrimonial "ad." Yet in Irvington, N. J., reside a happy couple, who first became acquainted through this means and who met under circumstances which almost became a tragedy. The latter was supplied by a railroad wreck which transformed the heroine of this story from a beauty into a cripple. She is, or was, Eleanor Fayers, but now she is Mrs. J. Edward Ten Eyck, her husband being a cousin of the famous amateur oarsman.

Eleanor Fayers, "just for fun," wrote to the matrimonial department of a New York newspaper and informed the editor that she would not be adverse to corresponding with some nice young man. He inserted her request in his paper, and in due time she received 115 replies from all over the country. Some of the letters were grave, some gay; most of them stupid. They came from all classes of men. There were lawyers, doctors, hotel proprietors, chefs, butchers and bakers among the writers. One man said he would marry her if she would advance him sufficient money to pay his way through college. But Mrs. Ten Eyck tells the story of her romance in the following words:

"Only one of the letters interested me. The writer asked me to write him if I was a lady. If I was not he didn't want to hear from me. 'So began my correspondence with J. Edward Ten Eyck. He found I was going to Long Island City with my mother about six weeks after the correspondence began. He said he would be at the station to meet us, and he would know me by my picture. I wrote jestingly: 'Don't be surprised at what you may see at Long Island on Sunday.' It was a jest that passed to 'earnest,' for just before the train drew into Long Island City our train collided with another. There was a terrible roaring in my ears, a frightful fall and the first thing I knew after that I was lying on the floor of the baggage car and my correspondent was leaning over me and saying: 'Eleanor, poor Eleanor!' Somehow we seemed very close together at that moment, although we had not seen each other before. I tried to comfort him. 'Don't worry,' I said, 'it will be all right soon,' and then this stranger, who had grown so suddenly into my life, cried and I cried in sympathy.

"When he left me I heard him talking with the doctor.

"Both limbs broken?" he asked.

"Yes, and her only hope is to have them amputated." A vision of a wretched cripple on crutches came before me, and I fainted. When I returned to consciousness my limbs had been amputated. I prayed to die, but while I was praying a box of beautiful roses with Mr. Ten Eyck's card bearing a pretty love message, was brought to me. He knew, and yet he wrote that he would always love me. The world turned from gray to rose color, and it has not changed since. The following evening he came to see me, the moment they would allow him, and every day after that he came until the hour when I left the hospital, on crutches, it is true, but his beloved and loving wife. The railroad company made a settlement, but the large sum they paid me is not of one-millionth part the value of my husband's loyalty."—Chicago Chronicle.

THE LONG-SKIRTED WOMAN.

An Irritating Sight to Men Walking
Behind Her Along a Trail in the Woods.

It did not seem very gallant to see him always walking the paths of the woods in front of the woman he had asked to accompany him, but it not being her habit to look out for slights, she assumed that he had some good reason and dismissed the subject from her mind after the first walk. He was attentive in the matter of aiding her up and down steep places, and he also expended time and strength in clearing branches out of her path, so she was justified in overlooking his persistent walking before. It chanced that one day a girl went for a good walk with the couple, and as the guest the woman insisted upon the girl preceding her along the narrow trail. Then was revealed the reason of the man's chronic forwardness, for nothing more maddening could be imagined than the shifting skirt of the girl as she moved up and down over the inclivities of the trail. Safety and comfort required a continual observance of the ground, covered as it was with exposed tree roots or tangled underbrush, or bits of broken rock or good-sized rocks, so that the person walking in the rear of a woman could not avoid seeing this perpetual bobbing of drapery as it trailed over the ground. A question put to the man revealed that walking after a skirt through a narrow trail threw him into a sort of frenzy of nervous irritation. The season at the moment offers opportunity for any who care to experiment to test the effect chronicled.—Vogue.

Fishing for Compliments.

Mrs. Glightly (fishing for compliments)—Ah, Mr. McJoseph, beauty is the most precious of all gifts Heaven has vouchsafed to us women. I'd sooner possess beauty than anything else in the world.

Mr. McJoseph (under the impression that he is making himself agreeable)—I'm sure, my dear madam, that any regret you may possibly entertain on that score is amply compensated for by—er—by—the innate consciousness of your moral worth, you know—and—of your many and numerous superior mental accomplishments.—Tit-Bits.

Miraculous Benefit RECEIVED FROM Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure.

ELLI P. BARNES, of Avoca, N. Y., a veteran of the 3rd N. Y. Artillery and for thirty years of the Babcock & Munsell Carriage Co., of Auburn, says: "I write to express my gratitude for the miraculous benefit received from Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I suffered for years, as result of army life, from sciatica which affected my heart in the worst form, my limbs swelled from the ankles up. I bled until I was unable to button my clothing; had sharp pains about the heart, smothering spells and shortness of breath. For three months I was unable to lie down, and all the sleep I got was in an arm chair. I was treated by the best doctors but gradually grew worse. About a year ago I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and it saved my life as if by a miracle."
